

Department of Sociology

Programme: Undergraduate (IJG)

Course: B.A. Part-I (Hans.)

Paper-I • Principle Of Sociology

CO1. Develop sociological way of thinking and understand the intricacies of social theories and concepts.

Paper-2. Indian Society And Culture

CO1 Acquaint and familiarise the students with intricacies of social institution, social structure, rural and social texture, cast class, gender, religion, family etc of the Indian society.

CO2. Develop an understanding of the societal and cultural dimensions of the dynamic nature of society and the environment in which we will live and work as scientist engineers and entrepreneurs.

Course: B.A. Part-II (Hons.)

Paper-3. Social Behaviour

■ CO1. Get insight of thoughts, feeling and behaviour influenced by actual, imagine or implied presence of other people.

CO2. Understand the perception of self, society, social cognitions, attitude, persuasions etc.

Paper-4. Social Research

CO1. Understand and Conceptualize the fundamentals of Research Methodology.

CO2. Imbue innovative thinking about research in Socio-political conditions of the given society.

Department Of Sociology

Course: B.A. Part-III (Hons.)

Paper-5. Social Thoughts

CO1. Familiarize the students with intellectual context of sociology

CO2. Understand the significance of classical contribution in sociology and their continuing relevance to its contemporary concerns.

Paper-6. Rural Sociology

CO1 Understand and analyse how rural people and communities are socially, culturally, politically and economically organised.

CO2. Develop critical thinking and reflective perspective among student through exposure to Indian rural society.

Paper-7- Social Disorganization

CO1. Grasp concepts of theoretical and practical aspects of social disorganisation.

CO2. Perceive theoretically the phenomena of crime, delinquency, prostitution, beggary, poverty, employment, alcoholism, dowry and socially infective diseases.

Paper-8 Social Anthropology

CO1. Develop critical thinking and a reflective perspectives among through exposure to cultural relativism of human ecology, genetic, society Tribal culture, human growth etc.

CO2. Understand, how humans live and thinks by looking all aspects of their experience.
