Report on NSS Participation in the Saksham Seminar on Energy Efficiency and Fuel Conservation

Date of Event: 17.01.2019

Organized by: Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA)

Introduction

NSS volunteers from Sri Arvind Mahila College, Patna, actively participated in the Saksham seminar conducted by the Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA). The seminar aimed to raise awareness on critical topics of energy efficiency and fuel conservation, highlighting the need for sustainable practices in fuel usage and energy management.

Objectives

- To gain insights into energy conservation strategies and fuel efficiency.
- To understand the significance of conserving energy for sustainable development.
- To educate NSS volunteers about actionable steps they can share within their communities.

Event Details

The seminar included presentations and discussions led by energy experts and PCRA representatives. Topics covered included methods to improve fuel efficiency, the environmental impact of energy waste, and ways individuals can contribute to conservation efforts. Program Officers Dr. Geeta Kumari and Dr. Rita Singh guided the NSS volunteers throughout the session, helping them understand the relevance of these practices in daily life and their role in environmental stewardship.

Highlights

- Energy Conservation Practices: Participants learned practical tips on reducing fuel consumption and enhancing energy efficiency.
- Awareness Building: Emphasis was placed on educating communities about sustainable fuel usage and the role each citizen can play in conserving energy.
- Community Responsibility: The seminar encouraged participants to become advocates of conservation and share the knowledge gained with their communities.

Conclusion

The Saksham seminar provided valuable insights into the importance of energy efficiency and fuel conservation. NSS volunteers left with a renewed commitment to applying these practices personally and promoting them within the college and local communities.
