Report on the Talk on Gender Issues Held on Human Rights Day

Date of Event: 10th December 2018 (Human Rights Day)

Venue: Sri Arvind Mahila College

Organized by: NSS Unit 1 & 2

Introduction

To mark Human Rights Day on 10th December 2018, a talk focusing on gender issues was organized at Sri Arvind Mahila College. The event aimed to shed light on gender equality as a fundamental human right, discussing the challenges faced by various gender groups and exploring ways to promote gender justice.

Objectives

- To educate students on the significance of gender equality as a human right.
- To discuss the social, economic, and political challenges related to gender discrimination.
- To encourage students to advocate for gender equality in their communities.

Event Highlights

- Keynote Address: Dr Geeta Kumari and Drt Rita Singh provided insights into the intersection of human rights and gender issues, highlighting cases and examples from various sectors.
- Focus on Challenges and Solutions: Key gender issues such as workplace inequality, gender-based violence, and access to education were discussed, alongside possible approaches for positive change.
- Interactive Discussion: Students participated in a discussion on how societal attitudes toward gender could be transformed to foster equality and respect.

Conclusion

The talk on gender issues provided students with a deeper understanding of gender equality as an essential aspect of human rights. It encouraged reflection on the steps that can be taken individually and collectively to create a more equitable society.
