Report on NSS Participation in Sports Day at Sri Arvind Mahila College

Date of Event: 26th October 2018

Venue: Sports Ground, Sri Arvind Mahila College

Organized by: NSS Units, Sri Arvind Mahila College

Introduction

On 26th October 2018, the NSS volunteers of Sri Arvind Mahila College added a unique touch to the college's Sports Day by organizing a scooter rally to welcome the event's esteemed guest. The rally served not only as a grand welcome but also as a display of creativity, featuring posters crafted by the students during a poster-making competition held earlier on 23rd October 2018.

Objectives

- To participate in Sports Day by showcasing creativity and enthusiasm.
- To welcome the guest with a special rally displaying student-made posters.
- To foster a spirit of teamwork and creativity among the NSS volunteers.

Event Details

The scooter rally began with the NSS volunteers assembling on the sports ground, each carrying a poster from the recent competition. As the guest arrived, the volunteers paraded the grounds on scooters, adding excitement and vibrancy to the function. The posters displayed slogans and messages aligning with themes of sportsmanship, college spirit, and NSS values.

Highlights

- Poster Display: The posters were carried prominently on scooters, showcasing the talent and efforts of the volunteers who participated in the poster-making competition.
- Rally Procession: The volunteers maintained a disciplined procession, with each scooter adorned with posters, creating a festive and energetic atmosphere.
- Guest Welcome: The rally served as a ceremonial welcome, marking the significance of the guest's presence on Sports Day.

Conclusion

The scooter rally by the NSS volunteers was a memorable addition to the Sports Day festivities. It underscored the creativity and enthusiasm of the students, leaving a lasting impression on the guests and attendees. The event highlighted the importance of student involvement in college functions, reflecting the dedication of NSS volunteers to both sports and community activities.
