Introduction

To mark World Health Day on 7th April 2019, NSS volunteers from Sri Arvind Mahila College conducted a community awareness session in a nearby slum area. This initiative focused on educating women and children about the importance of health and hygiene and the vital role cleanliness plays in creating a healthier society.

Objectives

- To educate the community on essential hygiene practices for better health.
- To promote awareness about the significance of cleanliness in preventing diseases.
- To inspire proactive health habits among community members.

Event Highlights

- Awareness Talk: Volunteers discussed key hygiene practices and emphasized the importance of cleanliness in maintaining individual and public health.
- Hygiene Demonstrations: Basic health practices, such as proper handwashing, were demonstrated to encourage their adoption.
- Community Interaction: The volunteers engaged the participants in a Q&A session, addressing their concerns about health and offering practical advice for daily hygiene.

Conclusion

The event highlighted the importance of cleanliness and hygiene in promoting community health, especially in underserved areas. The NSS volunteers' efforts were well received, fostering a positive impact on the residents and encouraging healthy practices.

Acknowledgment

Sri Arvind Mahila College extends gratitude to the NSS volunteers and the residents for their participation, contributing to a successful World Health Day awareness initiative.
