Report on NSS Day Celebration and Cleanliness Drive

Event Name: NSS Day Celebration and Cleanliness Drive

Date: 24th September 2022

Organizing Department: NSS, Sri Arvind Mahila College, Kazipur, Patna

Total No of Participants -44

Introduction:

On 24th September 2022, Sri Arvind Mahila College observed NSS Day with a dedicated Cleanliness Drive, organized by the NSS unit 1 & 2 to celebrate the spirit of community service and environmental consciousness. The event aimed to encourage students to participate actively in maintaining cleanliness in their surroundings, promoting the values of hygiene and public responsibility. It also commemorated the foundation of the NSS and emphasized the importance of serving society.

Objectives:

1. To celebrate NSS Day by engaging in meaningful community service.
2. To raise awareness about the importance of cleanliness and hygiene.
3. To instill a sense of civic responsibility among students by involving them in community welfare activities.

Programme Details:

The event commenced with an address by the NSS Programme Officers, who spoke about the history and objectives of the NSS, highlighting the importance of volunteerism and service. The significance of cleanliness in maintaining a healthy environment and contributing to Swachh Bharat Abhiyan was discussed by NSS Programme Officers Dr. Geeta Kumari (Unit 1) and Dr. Rita Kumari (Unit 2), along with faculty members.

Following the briefing, students and NSS volunteers divided into groups and actively participated in a Cleanliness Drive in and around the college campus. The drive included sweeping, collecting waste, segregating recyclables, and proper disposal of litter. Students carried banners and posters with slogans such as “Cleanliness is Next to Godliness” and “Keep Your Surroundings Clean,” spreading awareness among passersby and encouraging them to adopt cleaner practices in their daily lives.

Key Highlights:

- Active Student Participation: The event saw enthusiastic participation from students, who worked diligently in groups to clean designated areas within the campus and nearby streets.

- Awareness Campaign: Students not only participated in the drive but also engaged with local residents, educating them about the significance of cleanliness and waste segregation.
- Community Impact: The event created a positive impact on the college's surrounding areas, encouraging others to contribute to maintaining a cleaner environment.

Conclusion:

The NSS Day Cleanliness Drive successfully marked the NSS's commitment to social service and community welfare. The event instilled a sense of pride and responsibility among students, motivating them to be active agents of change in their community. The NSS unit looks forward to organizing similar initiatives regularly to strengthen the culture of cleanliness and service.

Outcomes:

1. Increased awareness among students and the community about cleanliness and waste management.
2. Strengthened sense of responsibility and teamwork among NSS volunteers.
3. Improved cleanliness in and around the college premises, contributing to a healthier and more hygienic environment.
