Sri Arvind Mahila College, Patna

Accredited by NAAC with B + Grade

(A Constituent Unit of Patliputra University, Patna)

Report on World AIDS Day Activities

Theme: Ending the HIV Epidemic: Equitable Access, Everyone's Voice

Date: December 1, 2019

Organized by: Department of Zoology

Venue: College Campus

Programme Coordinators: Dr.Prem Kumari, Dr.Geeta Kumari, Dr.Frezana Aslam

Objectives

- Raise Awareness: Educate students and the community about HIV/AIDS, its prevention, and the importance of equitable healthcare access.
- Reduce Stigma: Promote empathy and understanding towards individuals affected by HIV/AIDS.
- Engage Participation: Encourage students to take an active role in spreading awareness and supporting affected individuals.

Highlights

- Seminar and Guest Talks: Experts delivered impactful talks on HIV prevention, treatment advancements, and overcoming societal stigma.
- Awareness Campaign: Students organized poster exhibitions, street plays, and video presentations highlighting HIV/AIDS facts, myths, and social challenges.
- Interactive Quiz: A campus-wide quiz competition enhanced student engagement and knowledge about HIV/AIDS prevention and care.
- Health Drive: A free voluntary HIV testing and counseling service, in collaboration with a local healthcare organization, benefited over 33 participants.
- Community Engagement: Volunteers distributed red ribbons and raised funds to support HIV/AIDS-focused initiatives in the community.

Conclusion

The World AIDS Day activities at our college fostered a sense of awareness, responsibility, and compassion among participants. Through educational events and community involvement, the initiative encouraged students and staff to become advocates for equitable healthcare and HIV/AIDS prevention.

The event concluded with a moving candlelight vigil honoring those who have lost their lives to AIDS, leaving a lasting impression on everyone. The college remains committed to organizing such impactful activities in the future.
