Report on Educational Excursion to Rajgir

Dated- 18-01-2024

No. of students participated: 80

An educational excursion to Rajgir was organized by Department of Psychology under the guidance of Dr. Rajani Kumari Sinha on 18th January 2024, offered students an opportunity to explore historical and cultural landmarks. The trip included visits to significant sites such as the Venu Vana, Nalanda University ruins, and the hot springs, providing a deeper understanding of the region's rich heritage.

The excursion was attended by students and faculty members, allowing them to engage with both the history and the natural beauty of Rajgir. Students participated in informative discussions and gained valuable insights into the area's historical significance, Buddhist culture, and ancient education systems.

Overall, the excursion was an enriching experience that combined learning with sightseeing, enhancing students' knowledge of India's cultural and historical legacy.
