Sub: Proposal for conducting IAPs for girl students

Executive Summary

India's youth, particularly students in undergraduate and postgraduate colleges, represent the future investors and wealth creators of our nation. However, financial literacy levels remain low, leaving young adults unprepared to make informed decisions about saving, investing, and long-term wealth creation.

Mirae AMC and CIEL propose to conduct FREE Financial Awareness Programs for College girl students across India, covering all major states and educational hubs. Each program will be interactive, practical, and engaging to create a meaningful impact on the students.

Objectives

The initiative aims to:

- Enhance financial literacy among girl students.
- Build awareness on the importance of early financial planning, saving, and investing.
- Promote the concept of Systematic Investment Plans (SIPs) and mutual fund investing as accessible tools.
- Establish your institution as a thought leader and socially responsible educational institution.
- Create a long-term pool of informed future savers and investors.

Content & Methodology

Each program will be designed to be:

- Engaging: Interactive sessions leveraging real-life examples relevant to students.
- Practical: Focus on actionable steps (budgeting, saving, investing early).
- Inspirational: Stories of wealth creation through disciplined investing.
- Brand Aligned: Subtle integration of Mirae Asset's thought leadership and offerings.
- Delta Measurement: Conducting online quiz for the students to gauge their awareness levels pre and post programs
- Feedback: capturing Video and online feedback
- Participation certificates: E certificates to be provided to all participants on the same day.

Topics to be covered:

- Importance of financial literacy

- Understanding negative impact of inflation on our savings and financial goals
- Understanding concept of Mutual Funds
- Knowing Benefits of Mutual Funds
- Power of compounding and benefits of starting early.
- Understanding mutual funds and SIPs.
- Financial goal calculations

Other Program Features

- Duration –60 mins
- Purely education programs, no product promotion or Mutual Fund house promotion
- Conducted by experts in local language
- Project duration – 11th January to 25th January

Benefits to Educational Institutions

1. Social Impact & CSR Alignment -Contribution to financial literacy, in line with SEBI and AMFI mandates.
2. Providing financial literacy FREE of cost
3. Making students learn from the experts
4. Participation in an agenda of National Importance
5. Creating financially responsible base of savers and investors
6. Students will carry forward the message to their families and future careers.
7. Positioning the institution as a leader in the space of financial literacy in India.
8. Participation certificates for the students, college and the coordinator
9. May help in NAAC ratings
10. An opportunity to help create FinX- CIEL and Mirae create a India book and Asia Book record

What is expected from the college?

- Minimum batch size of 75 girl students
- Attendance of participants including email, phone number and signatures
- Provision for a place/hall to conduct program
- Projector, screen, PA system (if needed)

Kindly let us know when would you like to conduct these programs.

Yours Truly,

Aditya Nath Jha
