Organized By: Department of Economics & Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

In Collaboration With: IIM Bodh Gaya & Association of Mutual Funds in India (AMFI)

Venue: Seminar Hall, 1st Floor, Administrative Building

Participation: 142 students

1. Introduction & Objective

A one-day Financial Literacy Program was successfully organized on July 10, 2026, by the Department of Economics in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Shri Arvind Mahila College, Patna. Conducted in association with IIM Bodh Gaya and AMFI, the primary objective of the program was to spread financial awareness among female students, equipping them with the knowledge to become financially independent and sound decision-makers.

2. Keynote Address

The keynote speaker for the event, Mr. Abhinav Verma, addressed the students and shared detailed insights on various crucial aspects of financial planning. He specifically highlighted and explained the following core areas:

- Investments & Savings: Methods of safe and growth-oriented wealth creation.
- Mutual Funds & SIP (Systematic Investment Plan): The power of compounding through regular, small investments.
- Banking & Credit Management: Smart handling of credit and understanding modern secure banking practices.
- Insurance & Pension: Setting up financial safety nets for future security.

He motivated the students, emphasizing that financial literacy is a cornerstone for women's empowerment and self-reliance in today's world.

3. Principal's Address

The Principal of the college, Prof. (Dr.) Rekha Rani, highly appreciated this joint initiative. Highlighting the necessity of financial knowledge in contemporary times, she remarked: "Such programs go beyond textbook education, empowering our young women to make informed and independent financial choices in their practical, everyday lives."

4. Student Participation & Quiz Competition

The event witnessed enthusiastic and overwhelming participation from the student community.

- Total Attendance: A total of 142 students actively registered and participated in the session.
- Interactive Quiz: Following the technical sessions, an online financial quiz competition was conducted to test the students' learning.
- Certification: Successful participants were awarded certificates provided by SEBI-NISM (Securities and Exchange Board of India - National Institute of Securities Markets), adding valuable merit to their profiles.

5. Event Coordination & Vote of Thanks

- Moderation & Management: The entire program was smoothly moderated and managed by Mr. Aditya Bhardwaj, Head of the Economics Department and the Organizing Secretary of the event.
- Vote of Thanks: The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by the Convener, Dr. Sanjay Kumar Kushwaha, who expressed gratitude to the speakers, management, faculty, and students.

6. Notable Attendees

The successful execution of the program was supported by the active presence and contribution of senior faculty members and institutional representatives, including:

- Prof. Anjali Prasad (IQAC Coordinator)
- Mr. Robert Merchant (Representative, IIM Bodh Gaya)
- Faculty Members: Mr. Gopal Kumar, Dr. Norah Nivedita Shaw, Dr. Wellie Sinha, Dr. Vibha Kriti, and Ms. Tannu Kumari.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct Financial Literacy Program & SEBI Investor Awareness Test

This is to formally request permission to conduct a Financial Literacy Program at your esteemed institution under the initiative of the Association of Mutual Funds in India (AMFI), the industry body of SEBI-registered mutual funds.

The primary objective of this program is to equip students with essential financial knowledge, enabling them to make informed financial decisions and develop a sound understanding of investment concepts. As these students transition into their careers as first-jobbers, this program provides the essential tools to manage their earnings responsibly from day one. Further, it underscores your college's commitment to providing a holistic education that goes beyond academics to include the practical financial skills today's students prioritize.

The proposed 4-hour session will be followed by the SEBI Investor Awareness Test and include the following:

1. Basics of financial planning
2. Introduction to mutual funds
3. Investor awareness and financial discipline

Key details of the program are as follows:

1. The session will be conducted free of cost
2. The session will be delivered in an interactive and student-centric manner
3. Participants will receive SEBI Investor Awareness Certificate on successful completion

The program will be conducted by any of the following members from IIM Bodh Gaya:

Souvik Pandey (MBA/1076/11)	Abhinav Verma (MBA/3002/11)
Prakhar Aditya (MBA/2056/11)	Robert Merchant (DBM/1061/03)
Mahin Mitra (MBA/3039/11)	Sarthak Pandey (DBM/1066/03)
Brij Singh (MBA/3017/11)	Shashaanth NC (DBM/1070/03)

This program is being implemented across all districts of Bihar as a key component of a larger, nation-wide initiative driven by the Securities and Exchange Board of India to significantly enhance financial literacy and well-being.

We kindly request you to suggest a convenient date and time for conducting the session. We would also appreciate it if you could inform us of any formalities or arrangements required from our end to facilitate the smooth execution of the program.

We look forward to your favourable consideration.
